

The Power Of The Positive Pivot

"Triple P Methodology"

POWER OF THE POSITIVE PIVOT

In today's divisive world we find ourselves facing what appears to be unsurmountable challenges and odds. These challenges can range from polarized tribal politics, unprovoked wars, racial upheaval, diminished leadership, a politicized life-taking pandemic, to the very breakdown of mankind wherein money, wealth and power is more important than life itself.

Have we deviated from mankind's primary purpose, to serve and do unto others as we would have them do unto ourselves? Some would argue perhaps we have not deviated from the above. While, on the other hand, others would present evidence that we have deviated, and life is where the strong and powerful stand upon the backs of the weak and less fortunate. Whichever side upon which you build your house notwithstanding, how then do we keep pressing forward ... successfully, morally, spiritually, economically and politically? Well, don't ask me. I surely don't have the answers. I do however recognize that we must learn to face life and all of its challenges, from the smallest minute day-to-day decisions to those "crossroad/critical decisions" that will alter our lives (and others) forever.

So, how do we do this? How do we maneuver through these challenges that life presents to us? I offer a humbling five-step method by which I try to live my life that you might want to consider. Do note that while is educative it's not designed to simply educate. Moreover, while inspirational, it's not simply designed to inspire. While motivational, its primary purpose isn't to motivate. To the contrary, its primary purpose is indeed TRANSFORMATIONAL. This methodical approach is designed to unforgettable pivots, as we maneuver through whatever life presents. I respectfully challenge you, the reader, to intentionally and purposely search your heart, embrace who you are so that you to may discover the true application of this knowledge/wisdom and how it applies to your life.

It is this author's hope that through consistent application and implementation of the Triple P Methodology, the reader can glean a bit of hope as he or she navigates through his or her own personal journey. The Five Elements are as follows:

- ❖ P (Positive): Approach life with a powerfully positive attitude. Refuse to allow life's negative energy and people to dictate your standards and your approach.
- ❖ I (Issue): Identify and frame your issue in such a manner that encourages and promotes a positive outcome that defines your narrative, your growth and thus your victory.
- ❖ V (Visualize): See it, believe it, and achieve it ... formulate an intangible valiant image that will ultimately transform you into a tangible unbreakable soul.
- ❖ O (Ownership): It's your life, your story ... command control of it, possess it, neutralize all forces against it and create your narrative as you turn alleged obstacles into great opportunities.
- ❖ T (Triumphant): Because you began with a positive approach, identified and framed your issue, visualized your unbreakable soul, took ownership of your life, mastered your challenges with tenacity, you can now stand proud and erect as you are Triumphant.

"It is not the critic who counts, nor the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly, who errs and comes short again and again, who knows great enthusiasms, great devotions, who spends himself in a worthy cause, who, at the best, knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat."
